This company quoted me to paint my kitchen cabinets in about 3 to 4 days. They took almost 3 weeks and then the job wasn't done very well. They left edges on the cabinets without much coverage, uncoverd nail holes and joints. Didn't paint under the wall cabinets at all. Had to paint the doors twice and still didn't get the proper coverage or holes repaired. I would call it a half way job. Wouldn't recommend them to anyone. Very poor work.

We couldn't have been more thrilled with hiring Fresh Coat Painters! The entire process from quote to completion was carefully planned out and executed professionally by Tara. Kristine and William. They were awesome! We were a little bit hesitant to hire outside painters to repaint our porches and based on previous jobs that weren't done to our satisfaction. Our happiness isn't solely based on the painting itself, but the experience we get from those we're working with and a company that cares about our happiness and the finished product. Fresh Coat truly gave us peace of mind with this and exceeded our expectations. They're organized, kept in constant contact throughout, made sure to accommodate our schedules and always took the time to be sure the project was done correctly and to our satisfaction.Needless to say, we'll be calling on them again soon for other painting projects! :)

We love our house, the floor plan is perfect, the lot is nice, and the neighborhood is great, but it was looking a little sad. The "Fresh Coat" team came in and provided a much needed face lift. Now she looks as good as she feels. We could not be happier with the work Fresh Coat did for us, Friendly, courteous, professional, and hard working! They all feel like old friends now. You can tell the owner, Jimmy, cares about his team and the quality of the job. The project managers, Lara and Kristine were great, always touching base to make sure things were going well. William, the crew chief, knows what he is doing and settles for nothing less than total customer satisfaction. Thank you Fresh Coat for making this big project come together for us!

My experience with Fresh Coat Painters of Charleston was very good. They came early and left when the job was done. They pressure washed the roof and the whole house. The next day they painted and did a great job. It was extremely hot, but I heard no complaints.
