Christopher Klick, owner of CK Contracting, made the entire kitchen remodel experience enjoyable. All of the vendors he suggested that I work with when purchasing materials for the project were professional, friendly and extremely helpful and knowledgeable. All of my questions and concerns were resolved in a timely manner. What I anticipated to be a stressful experience turned out to be quite enjoyable due to Chris and his work ethic. He cares about his projects and it shows in his workmanship and the attention he gives his clients. I love my new kitchen and will hire CK Contracting for all future renovation projects.
