Lastime Exterior's principal (Josh) and his crews are professional, experienced and dedicated to quality. They will provide a project schedule and cost and will stick to their commitment with timely communication along the way. Josh will plan the project so they start and finish on time keeping the job site cleaned each day. Top notch contractor.

The work was professionally done. There was one hitch with the scheduling -- they did communicate they would be late, but it was on the date they were supposed to show up. Still, they did a good job.

Yes! Josh Bennett is by far the most professional contractor we have ever dealt with. He is very easy to communicate with and answered all of our questions. He is professional, trustworthy and just an overall great guy which took the stress out of our project.

It's been almost 100 degrees here and my house has been at 81 and 82 degrees during this hot season because of the new roof. It's been higher than what it was previously and I thought it would be a little lower than that.

Having a new roof and complete exterior paint repairing wood elements along the way is a large and complex task with the shape of roof and heat tape we have. Josh and his teams at Lastime Exteriors made it much easier and simpler than i thought it would be. They worked with diligence and left the site clean each day and they quality of the end result is first class. This combined with the quality of the materials used has left us very happy with the result.
