After dealing with a firm that lacked timely or organized communication, working with McMichael & Gray was a breathe of fresh air. Their friendliness and eagerness to explain and ensure that I understood the process was impressive.

McMichael and Gray failed to mention an encroachment on my property that is causing me problems now with my neighbor. The problem was reported on the surveyor's property map, but was handed included with the mass of papers on closing date. I realized there was a problem until I had already bought the house and had moved in.

I was asked to provide the paperwork needed due the same night. I told the agent I cannot provide you the paperwork tonight because I work night shift. They said if you don't provide the paperwork we will cancel your contact. And they canceled it. Because of that my $2500 taken by McMichel and Gray PC. Nobody told me it's non refundable. I was told my reasoning to cancel the contract wasn't satisfactory for a refund.

Professional atmosphere. The staff are cordial and they respond to your calls timely. They demonstrated patience and willingness to help with my requests. I even got to laugh a couple of times at closing...?

McMichael & Gray PC made our closing process an amazing experience. It was a stressful long 6 months during the home buying process. But, every negative experience felt worth it, from the first step in the office until the last step leaving.Absolutely Amazing experience
