I've always had great service from Current. But, a year ago their electrician showed up, told me it would be a six hour job. So I signed the contract. He then proceeded to tell me he couldn't do most of the work and finished in two hours. When I asked about paying for just work work done...he said sorry, you signed for 6 hours, you have to pay the full amount.

Sean was wonderful, as well as were the ladies in the office (there were at least four women who I worked with).

I was most satisfied with the communication, and when we had an issue that came up suddenly, they worked so hard to make sure the issue was resolved as timely as possible. I appreciated all the extra effort they put in.
