The workers were very good and accommodating to my wife. There were a few things that my wife wanted to be touched up or looked over again, and they did.

The paint was of really high quality, and the worker was very polite. He came on time, and also gave me a quote over a video chat. All in all, it was a pleasure working with him. I had no problems whatsoever during my interaction. Francis was a great guy to work with.

Fresh Coat Painters owner Francis was very responsive and arrived on time to walk through the condo to give an estimate. Once the job started the team finished on time and did a great job. Francis was also willing to work with me on competitive pricing. I would recommend and use their services again.
