What a fresh new experience in contracting a painting company! As a landlord for over 20 years, I've had to utilize painting contractors often and have never experienced such attention to detail. Definitely will recommend.

Fresh Coat and Sara Ross were the most professional and responsible people that I have dealt with. They worked all day every day and they did a beautiful job. I am so thankful that I found them. I would recommend them to anyone.

I was very, very impressed by everyone involved from start to finish. Everything looks beautiful and the guys cleaned up every day to make sure we could "use" the house as much as possible. They were there bright and early and even worked on Saturday to keep on schedule. This was a large job, with removal of nasty peeling wallpaper, they did a beautiful job!

The crew was very polite, friendly and professional. When I notice that they missed one spot. They went out of their way to correct it and anything else we asked of them. I would defiantly use them again.

Ellie was great. She and Garlen (project manager) were both quick to respond to emails and texts. They kept me informed from start to finish. The painters were polite, professional and did a wonderful job. The quote I received was the price I paid - no surprises. I would recommend Fresh Coat to my friends.

Very professional and easy to work with. Fresh Coat Painters of West Austin, TX is not the least expensive nor are they the most expensive. I was looking for a company that would provide the best results on a cost/performance basis and they clearly demonstrated in their work ethic and work quality that they were that company. I had the interior painted and the house was not an easy job. High ceilings, rough and uneven surfaces and many difficult areas that had to be cut in. Additionally, I had Fresh Coat of Austin faux paint a large wall using five different colors. They soon found that I was a perfectionist as I told them I didn't care for the results multiple times (probably my not communicating correctly). However, they spent the time to get it exactly as I wanted and it is fantastic, looking like old polished leather. If you want a job done right and on time, this is the company you want to do the job. I would not hesitate to recommend them or use them again for any painting project.
