Overall, we are very pleased with our new home. Starting with Lisa answering all our questions and changes we wanted to make to the plan, then Kelly who was extremely patient and insightful at the design center to Tom who had to implement our choices and deal with our texts and photos throughout the building process. Vernon McClure should be proud of his staff!

I was most satisfied that the process was easier than we expected. I think the best part is you pick out everything before they even start building so there is no holdups down the road.

The patience everyone has had with us. We've been wanting to build a home for 8 years and at no time did anyone ignore us, shoo us away or make us feel like we're wasting their time. This has been the best experience we've had with a major life purchase.
Main St. helped us build our forever home that will be passed down to our children.

This whole experience has been incredibly easy! Homebuying/building is often very stressful and this hasn't felt that way at all! I feel like they genuinely care about my family and our particular needs and have strived to make sure they are met.
