We just had a 40 year old sliding glass door replaced by Majors Home Improvement. The door had to be special made because of the large size. From the first salesman that came out to the two gentleman that installed it, we have nothing but praise. Everyone has been very courteous, helpful and respectful of our home. They used every precaution to protect our property, cleaned up and hauled away old door. Thank you Majors, we will be calling you again.

Crew left a mess every day. Disconnected the porch light and left debris in front of the door. Rather than cut shrubs back they stomped them, breaking them off at ground level. Trim details of the siding were erratic and inconsistent. In several cases different on each side of an architectural feature. Required four return trips to finish in a very third class way. Truly never completely to the customers satisfaction. First class prices for third class work. Do not hire them. I will be happy to provide photographs as evidence.

Comment from Majors Home Improvement

Thank you for your feedback concerning your Hardie siding and vinyl soffit installation. Your opinion and business is important to us and we regret any inconvenience this may have caused you. To make things right, we addressed clean up with our crew to do a better job in the future. After learning about the issues with the architectural feature on your home, we added trim on one side to match the other side and added more capping. We also performed extra work per your request on the front porch area at no charge. Thank you for your patience as we made corrections to your project.

In the day of broken promises and lack of professionalism, Majors went above & beyond to be sure I was satisfied with my window installation. There are not too many contractors left that perform in that manner. I would recommend them to anyone in need of new or replacement windows in their home or business.

This company is by far one of the most professional companies we have ever dealt with. They communicate every step during the process and never leave the customer uninformed. From the minute we met Cameron, we knew this was the right company to hire and when Mike Majors came to the house to personally confirm the project requirements, we were impressed. A well run, professional organization. We will continue to recommend them and we will rely on them for future projects on our home.
