We have had a lot of work done to our house and have hired a lot of contractors over the years; although I thought my roof was expensive, it was the easiest process I have ever had with a contractor. Hullco did what they said they were going to do when they said they were going to do it, for how much they said it would cost, and did not have to call them to call and fix it. We thought we paid a little more for it than if we had used someone else, but it was worth every penny of it.

The salesperson was very knowledgeable and had excellent customer service. The actual manager at Hullco was respectful, knowledgeable, and great customer service. The lady that does the scheduling, she was demanding me to make sure things were okay. She was a very rude person. There were not any more problems after she was reported.

From start to finish, Hullco explained the process, answered questions, helped us make wise decisions, did everything they said they would, went out of their way to meet with us on our schedule. A very dependable & professional company. We recommended them to a family member for a shower & they did the same for her.
