Have had issues since windows have been installed over 5 yrs now still working with them about it .did come out this year and saw no insulation was put around the sill of the window fingers crossed this will stop the windows from icing up. Now if they would just finish up the siding!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

I was very happy with the whole process. It was going to be delayed a day but they called me a week in advance to reset up a time. I love my window and everything from beginning to end went very smoothly. Also, communication was great!

I was introduced to Window Concepts the last time I bought replacement windows and the difference in quality from the old vinyl windows was remarkable. There was no question as to who to shop with when I needed more later. The staff sold the job after that. Thanks to all.

Great Windows. Great experience. Have referred friends to them. Friends have used them and had great experiences. I like their windows better than the Marvin and Anderson I installed previously.

Fabulous work. The installer was very skilled and a great communicator. We love the look of the bright white new tub and surround so much, that we haven't put up a shower curtain yet, as we don't want to cover any of it up!????

I was very impressed with the sales person. He did not put any pressure on me to buy . He answered all of my questions. If I had a concern he was always available to listen and answer any questions.I enjoyed and learned a lot from the guys that did the actual installing of my windows and doors. Every question was answered. The work done was excellent. I will be referring people I know that need to get new windows, or doors. Great job Window Concept.
Thanks
