APW Flooring was professional, did what I needed them to do, and the floors look beautiful! If I could give them a 10, I would. I highly recommend APW Flooring if you need someone to refinish/re-carpet your home.

I felt that we did not get enough advice about different aspects of our small renovation. Tile workmen were bad overall resulting in several additional steps at APW's expense. Contractor assured us we would be happy but September 5 is the three-month anniversary of the beginning of our project and there is still one step left to go! We should not have paid the balance of our money until that last bit of work was done. I didn't know what I didn't know about a job like this and expected more guidance. Workmen needed more instruction on how to care for materials (when toilet was stored in the garage, edge of tub,etc.) so damage would not be done resulting in more steps to rectify the situation.
