The people who did our work were friendly and worked really hard. They cleaned the work area up well each night and were very careful. We were very pleased with the workers and the job they did. Also, we had several other projects that needed to be complete before Banner could start, and they were...

I just want to thank you all one more time for being so great to work with. I could have never foreseen the challenges that came up during this project, but you all remained understanding and professional at every step. There are few contractors out there that would have handled the situation as well...

I have experience managing projects and contractors and am very picky on the details. Banner did a nice job satisfying my needs. I will be an advocate for Banner with my friends and family as they consider doing exterior work to their homes.

The did a project for us about seven years ago, they built a sun room on our house and we were really pleased with the job. They took a lot of our home into consideration, it blends in perfectly with the rest of the home. You'd never know it wasn't there to begin with. We chose them based on past experience.

We make it a point never to look over anyone's shoulder while work of any kind is being performed. If we don't trust someone we don't hire them to begin with. It seems that we are always rewarded with exceptional work by those who take that trust as a compliment and don't want to let us down. I would...
