The material used by DM is first quality. The material selection process was coordinated very well by JD. The layout, design, and planning was all very professional. We especially liked the security of having only DM personnel in our home doing the work. JD personally saw that any construction issues...

When we decided to make changes in the bath to make it less likely for my mother to slip and fall we had a lot of choices to make. After talking to my sister who had just had a walk in tub and bath remodel by Dreammaker we went to talk to J.D. . From the very first meeting to the completion of the project...
