George W Combs Inc. and his team are very professional and address all concerns a homeowner could have upfront... Living through a renovation is not easy, but knowing I hired the right contractor has made the process doable..

George is the ultimate professional. I have done several major projects and George is the only builder that I recommend without hesitation. From start to finish he was perfect. He worked with the architect to bring down the overall cost without compromising on what I wanted done. The quality of work/materials was perfect, cleanliness and adherence to scheduling was perfect, and follow up on the few incidental issues has been great.

George and all of the members of George W. Combs, Inc. have been incredibly attentive, helpful and professional. While we are just in the beginning phases of our major renovation, I have the utmost confidence in them and trust George's opinion and direction throughout this process.

I have had terrible experiences with contractors. Mr. Combs is the antithesis of this. He is a pleasure to work with, does what he says, is a perfectionist and is honest.

George Combs is a total professional. He is a lovely person who does beautiful work, keeps his word, knows exactly what needs to be done, gives you a written estimate of the job in advance and at a very fair price for the quality of the work. Dealing with him is a delight.
