The service exceeded my expectations from start to finish. My roof was past the stage of repair and Pinnacle was able to find me great low cost financing in order to completely replace my entire roof. Suprisenly the roof on my shed was replaced too. This company went beyond the basic service over and over again. They were in contact with me through every step and even replaced wood on my chimney siding that was damaged due to my old leaky roof. Thank You, Thank You, Thank You for being honest, fair, and going over and above ensuring all my needs were met.

Back in December we had siding installed on our home and are extremely pleased with the work! In spite of COVID, to our surprise, our order arrived a couple of weeks ahead of schedule and was completed just in time for Christmas! Our representative Robert, was prompt for all appointments, friendly, professional and readily available for our questions or concerns. We received the same great treatment from the project manager and sales manager as well. The contractors were absolutely amazing! They started early each morning and worked practically non-stop until the end of day to ensure the work was done correctly. Our home now looks brand new! We are over the moon! Pinnacle Home Improvements exceeded our expectations!

We had attic insulation put in. The sales person showed us a product I really liked but when they installed it was a completely different product. My husband looked it up and it showed as possible being better but when he called the manufacture they said it was not put in correctly. They are suppose to send someone out to inspect it but we had to call and get someone out and when my husband asked does this look like it was done correctly the inspector said I really don't know I do roofing!! We were also told we could pay half once the product was put in and then the rest After the inspection but they demanded it all at once! I called to report everything and they did call back (after saying I was going to the Better Business Bureau) and they did complete the project and give us some money back. A couple weeks later I notice our inset lighting in the bathroom was slightly pushed down (this is under part of what they did) I called reported it - no call back. My husband then called talked to a manager around the end of May and sent a picture per his request and said someone would call back as of today June 20th, still no response and the lighting fixture is slowly falling further down. A nightmare from start of job to - I was going to say finish but it still isn't!! Next letter to Better Business Bureau and every media place I can place this!

The Pinnacle representatives were always upfront and professional. My roof was covered under my insurance and I had no idea I had tiles that were recalled a number of years ago along with some hail damage. All I had to pay was my deductible and with a wave of the wand I had a new roof. It was very simple and fairly quick. The representatives walked us through everything every step of the way. Thank you Pinnacle, I like my new roof and it will help add value when we decide to sell.

The installation boss was very knowledgeable and did a good job as a whole. My low ratings are due to my dissatisfaction with the crew coming late and only working a few hours on the days they did show up; thereby extending the project a couple of weeks longer. Also I was asked to sign a statement saying that the project was completed and I was satisfied (so they could get paid) when it was not. I should not have been put in that position of feeling sorry for the installation crew. After that I was afraid they would not finish the job since I had signed that it was complete. The last day the crew of two pushed hard to finish the project and worked until almost 8:00pm so I did not ask them to come back one more day and completely do what the boss said they would do. My house needed a lot of repair work before siding could be put up in many places n they did an excellent job of doing that.

The sales associates was knowledgeable and communicated well. Everything was done in a timely manner. I had an issue after installation and contacted them multiple times. I kept being told that I would get a call back and I never did. It has been over a year now and my concern/issue still hasn't been resolved.
