They took the job even though so many other people didn't want it. It was a difficult job and they had to deal with my husband who is senile and a retired carpenter.

Cecil and crew did a great job replacing my roof. I am pleased with the quality of the workmanship and jobsite clean-up. What I was most impressed with was Cecil's communication with me throughout the project, starting with the first walk-through and all the way through the completion of the job. It is the aspect of my experience that leads me to recommend Ready Roof to friends and family.

Kris did a great job of assessing hail damage. He was on top of the whole process. He was diligent in keeping track of the work and especially his crew. I would definitely recommend Ready Roof to any one

Fly by night kind of company. They hire random people to the roofing and it just seemed poorly run.

In October, 2018, faulty shingles were used on my roof. I was told they would be replaced. The company (Owens Corning) has still not replaced them and it is now April 30, 2019. All monies for the job was given up front. Very upsetting!!
