Absolutely the worst experience with a contractor that I have ever had.

I was really happy with the service and I want to thank them for doing the work. I was pleased with my emergency service response. It was excellent.

Average quality materials and a ton of unfinished work in my home . And now they are gone. Very disappointed how my home. Now I have been trying to bring it up to par. My insurance company pay a ton of money for half work. The one guy that did the finishing work did it half way . And left my home that way . He ask me to sing these papers and I will be back. But he got his money and that was the end of him.

RestoreCore was a pleasure to work with. I haven't had much work done on my home in the past, so I wasn't sure what to expect, but they made the process easy and painless!
