We worked with Scholl construction for a custom home build. We worked closely with Pete at the beginning. Both Pete and his team were very helpful in our selections and helped put our dream to paper. We were super excited when everything started. We were making great progress and moving along nicely...

The work was done very well. All construction issues were remediated quickly. The scheduling and communications around the plans for each day/week were less than we (first time remodelers) expected.

Have worked with Scholl Construction on several projects. The foremen and sub-contractors have all been extremely professional!! Their response to any problems during or after the project has always been very timely and completed as expected. It has also been a pleasure to work with the knowledgeable office staff.

We built our home during a time when real estate took a hard hit which in turn meant we had less money to build our dream home. Peter worked with us closely to make our dollar stretch as far as we could make it go.

Scholl has all of the administrative tools of a big construction company; contracts, estimating, change orders, insurance policies, etc. With those tools they are very flexible and capable of making changes quickly and communicating them to the customer in a clear and concise manner.

I was most satisfied with the price, it was exactly what he said it would be. There were no surprises. If something cost more than what we were quoted for he didn't put that on us, he absorbed the additional cost.

I'm most satisfied with the frequent contact from Peter Scholl. He oversaw the project and met with us every step of the way. We had countless changes as we discovered more work that needed to be done. It was supposed to be a small repair, but we started removing portions of the wall with more damage...
