Champion built my sunroom two years ago and o have been hooked ever since. I had 3 concerns with the sunroom. I called Champion to express these and Champion immediately addressed and corrected the problem. When I wanted my windows done, Champion was my first choice.

The installation crew and local office has been fantastic thus far. Our windows were installed two days ago. However, a very expensive upgraded window was not delivered to them and the window in the bathroom was installed but not obscured-the correct glass. We are currently awaiting Champion to correct...

I love my Champion windows. However, it took the crew three visits to finally get my French doors installed correctly. And it was usually impossible to reach them on Fridays, as no one ever answered the phone during normal business hours on that day.

I would recommend Champion Windows to anyone. The only thing is they need to tell you everything before you get started - like when you look at the finished product, and the windows still need to be painted.
