The quality of the product and installation met our expectations. The failure of the installation team to arrive on the date promised at the time promised or to accommodate us by installation on the following day - a Saturday - was disappointing. As a result, we had to carve out our schedule the following...

The locking mechanism on our sliding door needed replacement. The first time the repair person came out he brought the wrong handle. He said the handle on our door was not a Champion design and they did not have a replacement. After much discussion, there was agreement to research the make/model and...

Everything they performed was great. There were two or three issues they were going to come back and resolve, but I have yet to hear back from them about resolving the issues. Other than that they have been great.

My installation was on November 18 and 19. The screen door on my new door was very bent and defective. Installer said Champion would deliver me a replacement. It is January 2, six weeks later, and I have not had my screen door delivered or received any follow-up with Champion.

Windows are great, installation was very professional, installers knew their job and all 8 windows installed in one day. One screen needs to be replaced and after two attempts to have this repair completed, it is still not done. This has been several weeks. Champion windows follow up, for me, has been totally zero !!

The initial meeting with Champion was great. The salesperson was very helpful and informative. I was not pleased at all when the installers came to install the windows and found out all of the measurements were incorrect. I'm not sure how that happens. I had waited 7 weeks, had taken the day off from...

The installation went very very smoothly with Jeff. Very professional and done right the first time. David was new - so he really didn't know everything yet and there were a couple of hiccups.

The installation was fine, the crew was awesome, and the salesman was very nice and productive. However, the office staff didn't have anything in the system for the electric company to verify that we got new windows in.
