I was most satisfied with working with Russ. He is great, he is honest, trustworthy, dependable and pleasant. If there is any dissatisfaction or concerns he addressed it immediately, is apologetic, again at times we had a question or something and he was on top of it immediately. The people that work with him, for him are professional, courteous, pleasant, trustworthy, dependable and I can't say enough nicer things about them in that particular group at Fresh Coat.

I really appreciated the communication regarding scheduling and making sure the job was done to the right standards. I also appreciate how time was taken to get paint samples from my porch to color match and to check that I was happy with all colors.

I can't say how much of a relief it was to have Fresh Coat on the job. Prior to their arrival, we had trouble with a couple of different painters not showing up, walking away from a half done job & requesting advances for materials, etc. Russ and his crew arrived when they said they would, gave a firm estimate, didn't need anything up front (other than our approval), got right to work and didn't stop until they were done. Their work is top quality and they managed to clean up behind some messes that previous painters had made. I would highly recommend them, and plan to use them for future projects.

The owner is very professional and went over everything. He was on site and checked their work. Other companies gave me quotes that were 3 times higher than his price.
