I've dealt with a lot of painters over the years but Freshcoat stands head and shoulders above them all. Very responsive, great pricing and were always here when they said they would be. They did a terrific job.

After hiring a painting company, that I had a long-standing relationship with, no-showed, I was stuck looking for a new company. A co-worker had heard of your company and passed along the contact information. I was VERY IMPRESSED with every step of the way. Great communication. My expectations were met. The Fresh Coat team did a great job, were able to problem solve an issue, provided great communication through the process and cleaned the job site when complete. I could not be more pleased!

This was an excellent experience. Their quote was slightly higher, but in line with the numerous others we received. However, the level of service was phenomenal from beginning to end. They were prompt, professional, efficient, organized, and very clean. They painted about 75% of our home and I will only consider them to complete the other 25%. Highly recommend this company and look forward to working with them in the future!

Fresh Coat Painters of Marietta did a great job painting the exterior of my home. From power washing and minor repairs of wood and siding to the actual painting, everything was done with professionalism. What's more, the two men arrived on time each morning and worked diligently and politely from about 8:30am-4:30pm every day. The only caveat is that they were not as careful of my landscaping as I would have liked. Since plantings closest to the house were not covered, some of them were sprinkled with paint. However, some plants that were six to eight feet from the home also ended up with paint on them—or with broken pieces—as did portions of my lawn. Yet, overall, I give Fresh Coat Painters of Marietta high marks for exterior painting.

They did the exterior of my house and then I had them scrape and paint the popcorn ceilings. Both jobs turned out quite nice.

I needed a basement painted with a moisture blocker to support sale of a home and time was a constraint. Fresh Coat worked me in and completed the job in one day and the work performed was excellent and at a good price. I am well satisfied and would use the again and recommend the to friends and neighbors.

They were very professional, on time, and the price they gave me was great. They even gave me a discount for being a veteran. I liked that I could finance it. The house is for sale and it was nice to know that I could pay it off at closing. They were friendly, courteous, on time, and the work was great.

I was most satisfied with the quality of the work, as well as the attitude of the staff. They were on time, early in fact. Before they started the work, they went over the items to be done. If there was an issue that arose they brought it to my attention, so we could review how to move forward. We knew now going into the work that some things would come up, you can not see every thing for what it is until the work starts.
