The worst experience I ever had with a contractor. This was to restore my hardwood floor after water damage. After more than four month of dealing with Meridian and an unsuccessful installation, ended up asking for my money back and going with another company that used the right materials, was confident in their work, and installed the hardwood floor properly. Definitely would NOT recommend this company.

Comment from Meridian Restoration

Hi Aref. I do apologize for the unfortunate experience you had with our company. It was truly not our intention. Hopefully we can work together towards a resolution.
