They did a great job. They found more bad wood more than anticipated and only charged me for the extra job materials and not the labor. I received a completely new roof down the rafters and the owner was on site.

I have never had such a pleasant and professional experience when dealing with a contractor in the renovation of my home. Renovating is a very stressful process to go through. Homewerx, LLC and Billy Martin made that part of my renovation project a breeze. I love my new roof. I would recommend Homewerx...

I was very pleased with the new roof. It makes a big difference in the appearance and quality of my home. The work and clean up was professional. The crew took care of something on the roof for me that was not even on the contract. Very nice company to work with.

I was very happy with their work and the quality. What I was not happy with was, I was ensured that I was getting a high wind rating roof, but when my insurance company asked for a wind mitigation form he told me he could not fill out the form.

I had a very good experience with Homewerx. I am a widow and this was a rental property of mine. The sales rep, Frank Spec, was absolutely helpful. He explained everything to me. I spoke to a couple of other companies but Homewerx was the only company that really put in the time during the sales presentation....
