In March 2019 we made a decision to totally replace our 'shingle roof' and 'original leaf guard gutter system' --both installed in the mid-1990's. Over the 'period of time', significant improvements have been by Leaf Guard related to:a) sizing of gutter downspouts; b) additional 'color options' beyond...

Overall I think it is a great product, it might seem a bit pricey but I think it add to the curb appeal of the home and protect the home from water damage. If I was building a new home this is one item I would make sure was added to the project.
