Neligan Construction was very thorough in all of their work and all of their men, crew, and staff was very professional. They helped me decide on materials to use and they were very knowledgable on everything. I was extremely satisfied with the workmanship and the quality of the work that they did.

Staff communicates well and work occurred efficiently and with high quality. We did not bring it up to the company, so it shouldn't affect their rating, but we had a bush flattened and piece of fence that was broken, but otherwise a terrific job. They warned us there would be nails, so we went around...

Prior to having my roof being replaced I had researched several roofing companies in addition to Neligan. I selected Neligan for three reasons: 1. The company was local, 2. I was impressed with the owner's (Mr. Brian Neligan) knowledge of the roofing business and that he answered all of my questions...

The job was much more of a mess than anticipated. Crew was hard to communicate with. A/C's were left uncovered even after requesting them to be covered. They did eventually cover them when I contacted the owner. The product seems to be of good quality.
