Wyoming Roofing's workmanship was good, the crew was good, but their billing and estimate needs big improvement. You don't know what you're paying for.

I feel that the roofing crew worked very hard, were nice to have here and did a great job. I appreciate that they did several passes around the house to pick up any remaining nails. I am very pleased that the management team worked effectively and in my best interest with my insurance company. My roof looks great.

I called other like contractors in the area and nobody answered their phone or never returned my call as I was told. After almost a year, I called Wyoming Roofing and they set an appointment and they showed up for scheduled appointment. Work comes with a guarantee, I can call anytime when there is an issue with the work they did and they will show up to correct/fix the problem. A lot of local folks say what they do is pricey, but just remember you get what you pay for. I highly recommend for your roofing projects and gutters.

My new roof looks great! Keep your contract handy and insist upfront that any additional charges need to be discussed and approved. I also think work should be done correctly the first time ... avoiding extra trips to make things right so the customer is 100% happy.

If you are looking for a top-notch, professional company to work on your roof, you need look no further. We are satisfied with the work that they did replacing our roof, which had sustained hail damage. Tom Hurley even worked closely with the insurance adjuster to be sure that everything would be adequately covered so that there were no surprises at the end. Everything was done competently and efficiently. The workers were all respectful of us and our needs (getting a nonagenarian with a walker out of and into the house from time to time!). They were pretty quiet and mercifully, didn't have a radio blaring as they labored in the intense heat. Despite the heat, they were able to finish the project in a timely fashion, for which we were grateful.

Wyoming Roofing and I designed more than a roofing job, they were eager to fulfill my needs. Some of this work they probably were not used to providing and may have lost money on this project. They completed all tasks to my satisfaction. From the initial discussion thru completion including all the proper paper work to make the insurance claim seamless and easy. They started the project, we went on vacation and when we got back it was done. I have used them once before and must be satisfied because they are the only one I called for this project.

Wyoming Roofing & Supply was there to help and give us information on roofing repairs with an insurance claim during a confusing process. They made the new roof and repairs an easy transition. Living in an area with many of my neighbors getting new roofs, I had the chance to see many contractors construction practices. Wyoming Roofing & Supply crew, product, and procedure was reassuring we were getting a quality job completed.
